Kids Corner From 101 Questions for Family Dinner

- 1) If you could be famous for one thing, what would it be and why?
- 2) Name one time when someone has shown you a lot of love.
- 3) If you could choose one award to win (real or made-up), what would you pick and why?
- 4) If you could ask God one question, what would it be?
- 5) If you could only do one thing for a whole day, what would you pick?
- 6) Tell me about a time when you had to be really brave.
- 7) Where is the most beautiful place you have ever been?

We all know that family dinner is important. But do you know how important they are? See familialive.org

Martin Luther 19. Here I Stand

Luther's legacy is immense and cannot be adequately summarized. Every Protestant Reformer—like Calvin, Zwingli, Knox, and Cranmer—and every Protestant stream—Lutheran, Reformed, Anglican, and Anabaptist—were inspired by Luther in one way or another. On a larger canvas, his reform unleashed forces that ended the Middle Ages and ushered in the modern era.

“Text A Toastie” night went down well where the internationals were able to ask a question and we actually had a group of CU students come and deliver the answers and toasties personally to iCafé. A few of them were very interested in knowing where we go when we die. This proved to be a big open door for introducing the Gospel to them.

Give thanks for all the conversations and the relationships with both students and staff. Pray that students will get more involved in the activities. Pray that we can continue to run the workshops at the university in July and August this year and that many students will be reached.

Galatians 6: 1-10 p. 1172

What should our reaction be when a Christian brother or sister is caught out in sin. Should we turn a blind eye, point the finger and feel a sense of superiority. Or follow the teachings in this passage of scripture that encourages us to seek to restore that person in gentleness and humility.

Dear AEC

It was nice to catch up with you at Easter. Here's my latest Relay prayer letter. It's been so amazing seeing God's power at work in individual lives over the last month or so and also learning about the doctrine of adoption. Thank you again for all your prayers, support and encouragement! Hope to see you again soon.

Love Amy Knott
