Mini-conference weekend at AEC September 23rd. We have Ted Turnau coming to us, to help us understand current culture, and appreciate common grace and what that means for us. Ted teaches in the Czech Republic, and has written Popologetics. He is an engaging speaker, and apologist.

Book this in your diary now!

Life groups meet on Wednesday and Thursday evenings unless otherwise stated. To join a life group ask at the Information Point.

22. Martin Luther
Here I stand
"I was dead"

One of his worst kidney-stone attacks occurred in 1537. He told his wife, Katie, "I had not been healthy there for more than three days, and from the first Sunday to this night, not one little drop of water passed from me; I had no rest nor did I sleep, and I was unable to retain any drink or food. In summary, I was dead; I commended you, together with the little ones, to God and to my gracious Lord, since I thought that I would never again see you in this mortal life.... But many people prayed to God so hard on my behalf that their tears moved God to open my bladder this night ... and I feel as if I were born again.

6.30 pm

Stephen Pethick

Psalm 15 p. 549

What would happen if you stood up in a bobsleigh?

We can all imagine what might happen if someone stood up in 4 man bobsleigh whilst it was going down a run. Tonight we are looking at how we keep in step with God because the consequence of disobeying him is far more serious! (Matthew 10:28)

Deacons meeting
Thursday 22nd June 7.30 pm

Please pray for the Deacons who will be meeting on Thursday evening. We appreciate all they do for us at AEC.

Pray for:
Unity in decision making,
planning and organisation
Vision for future outreach ...
