'Where do we go when we are forsaken?'
Psalm 22.

Songs can bring back memories, some of those very strong. Jesus, when he was dying went to a song for his help. And in one line captured it all.

Martin Luther

20. Here I Stand

It has been said that in most libraries, books by and about Martin Luther occupy more shelves than those concerned with any other figure except Jesus of Nazareth. Though difficult to verify, one can understand why it is likely to be true.

AEC Website Please send details of events to Tom Clarke for the online diary@aechurch.org.uk and to Sophie Hillier by Wednesday for this weekly news sheet: notices@aechurch.org.uk

Darkness Falls

Sunday 23rd July

Darkness Falls is the remarkable re-imagining of the Gospel of John

Tried, convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment, John finds himself breaking rocks alongside killers and thieves – but John has a secret, John has a story and John's story will change everything.

Moving, funny, poetic and fantastical, the play mixes vivid storytelling with beautiful live music to bring you a timeless story as you've never seen it before.

Saltmine Theatre Company and UCCF
This show is written for teenagers upwards and contains aggressive behaviour and mild bad language. 12+.

Floppy Christianity
2 Timothy 1: 1 - 8

How fearful are we to share the Gospel as we should.
How we need "grace, grit and gumption" through the Spirit's power. God calls us to fan the embers of our courage into flames of power, love and self-discipline.

The Reformation Series: John Owen

The tenth and latest episode in our special Reformation video series is now available.
One of the Puritan 'greats', John Owen was dubbed the "Calvin of England" by his contemporaries and "the prince of English divines" by CH Spurgeon.
This week opens up the life and theology of Owen, next week provides a more in-depth look at his doctrinal approach.
